Welcome to a new year of CPRE membership - we need you more than ever.

12 April 2018

Dear Friends

Thank you for being a CPRE member. It is support from organisations like yours that makes it possible for us to stand up for our beautiful and irreplaceable countryside.

I am delighted to enclose your membership card for the coming year, which begins on 16/06/2018.

I hope your organisation is proud to be a member of CPRE – together we have achieved many successes for the countryside over the past 12 months.

At a national level, you helped us shift Government thinking on how to solve the housing crisis, which will save more green fields. At the same time, you supported CPRE Cambridgeshire, which is often a lone voice defending your local countryside from inappropriate development.

This is wonderful progress but there is still much to do and your continuing membership is crucial.

While the Government is now listening to our concerns about its approach to getting more houses built, the countryside remains threatened by over-inflated and undeliverable housebuilding targets. It is vital we stay vigilant on this issue to prevent more unnecessary loss of our green fields during the coming year. With your ongoing support, we will carry on pressing for sensible targets and better protection of the countryside.

Thank you again for standing up for our countryside. If we do not do it, who will?

Yours sincerely

Bill Sharkey
Head of Supporter Services

P.S. Please turn over to read about some of the successes your organisation has helped achieve for the countryside this year through your membership.
